

Bio – Jean Garcia Dorazio

Jean is a third generation native of Florida and the Tampa Bay area.

Selling residential and commercial real estate, land development for a major developer and working in the title industry has given her valuable experience and insight into many aspects of real estate. As manager of a successful real estate office with over 30 agents for 6 years, she had the opportunity to gain knowledge by solving problems and making transactions work for agents and customers. Formerly a Senior Vice President for the Florida operation of a national Fortune 500 corporation, Jean has the experience to bring her business, management and real estate knowledge to Greater Tampa Realtors and be a valuable contributor to the organization's growth and member relations.

She is currently an active Realtor serving the Hillsborough and Pasco markets. She has served on the Board of Directors for Greater Tampa Realtors several times.

Her 2020 GTR activity is Vice Chair of Professional Standards and member of the Finance Committee and well as several task forces formed this year. For Florida Realtors, she serves on the Professional Development Committee and the Faculty Development Committee and is a Florida Realtors Board of Director. As a Life Director for Tampa Bay Builder Association she has experience in the building industry, as well. She also teaches Code of Ethics and Greater Tampa Realtors New Member Orientation.

Jean has been a Realtor in Florida for over 35 years, also a licensed real estate instructor and an approved instructor for Florida Realtors. The National Association of Realtors has approved her to teach REBAC courses, as well.

In summary, her background of multiple roles in real estate, real world experience and the desire to serve Greater Tampa Realtors, make her a great candidate for a Director in 2021.
