GET THE HEALTH COVERAGE YOU DESERVE

Greater Tampa REALTORS® (GTR) is excited to share that you and your employees now have access to health care insurance as a new benefit of your GTR membership!

As your premier real estate resource, GTR is committed to providing the benefits you, your team, and your family need to succeed personally and professionally. With that, we are thrilled to introduce you to Woligo.

Woligo is an insurance provider that connects self-employed professionals and small business owners to the coverage needed to support their lifestyle – and GTR has partnered with Woligo to extend this opportunity to you. This extraordinary benefit includes the following:

Individual Health Insurance

Health insurance for the self-employed is critical. With an individual health insurance plan, you can focus on a speedy recovery instead of worrying about high medical costs. Learn more.

Small Group Insurance

Group insurance plans are designed with you and your business in mind. As a business owner, recruiting and retaining top talent is key and health insurance is one of the most sought-after benefits you can provide for your employees. Learn more.

Nearly one in five are uninsured because they found signing up was too difficult or confusing, or they could not find a plan that fit their needs, according to the Kaiser Family Foundation.

We don't want that to be you – get a quote today for individual health insurance or small group insurance.

As a real estate professional, you are always on the go, and GTR understands the importance of having access to the necessary coverage – and we couldn't be more excited to share this news with you!

For questions, contact Woligo by email or call a Woligo Licensed Agent at (888) 633-5229, select option 1 after dialing. Additional questions can be directed to GTR Member Services at memberservices@tamparealtors.org.
